Nothing About Us, Without Us

On Saturday 17th September 2016 over 30 people with disabilities gathered in the eerie quiet of a once busy Canberra Plaza to raise our voices about issues that concern us as we travel, live and find home in Canberra. Here are some signs, words and images that tell the story...

"I had to climb steps and many barriers to even get here today" – Andrew

"Everything revolves around home. It is central to the beginning and end of our lives every day" – Robert

"We need 100% accessible buses" – David

"Save Our SHOUT" – Rally sign

"I don't want to fly to Singapore, I just want to get around Canberra" – Craig

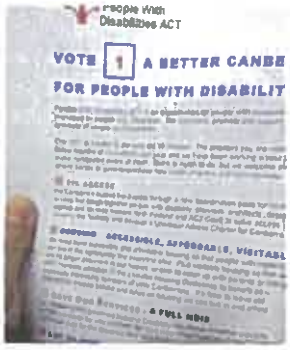
"I want to talk to you about jobs" – Maida

"Let me tell you about liveable housing..." – Sue

"Access Now" – Uniting for change

Getting out

Speaking out



Getting the policies out

And getting the word out that…

"We have rights…"

"to access and inclusion by the next ACT Government"
